Blaze the night, lift the stake
Cause your world is broken
Everything's on the floor
Whenever the word is spoken
Lonely bed you're awake
Falling asleep you're hoping
Faith will come through the door
Open up cause there's still time

If you closed your eyes
If you took a breath
When the knife is on the ground
If you feel erased
When He's in this place
Then your life it will be found

You will fall to your knees
It's a tragic sickness
Just a step to the grave
Walk to the other side
You're a slave when you're free
Cause the remedy says
You will never be saved
Open up cause there's still time

If you closed your eyes
If you took a breath
When the knife is on the ground
If you feel erased
When He's in this place
Then your life it will be found

Lights fall, it's clear
Your words are here

If you closed your eyes
If you took a breath
When the knife is on the ground
If you feel erased
When He's in this place
Then your life it will be found

[4x] Motion started, breathing wanted
Close your eyes

[2x] Open up
[2x] Open up cause there's still time
