

Falling Up "Captiva"

Visit "Captiva" on MotoLyrics.com

Light breaks the morning glaring headlights in the fog
To see how measurements and aerospace is moving up
This sudden danger is my calling I can swear
When I am ready I'll release

So lost for words, this stranger heard
That I'm gone forever, leapt before the fall

In a million, in a million pieces I am breaking up
To the future, to the future science is the circle taught
And light breaks the morning flooding headlights in the fog
With measurements and aerospace

So lost for words, this stranger heard
That I'm gone forever, leapt before the fall

I'm leaping out too far, I've never been so sure Letting go off charts, falling close to stars

In a million, in a million
In a million, in a million
