Coming at you like the Jackson 5 live in effect, respect due

You knew we drew lines to make it through Completely submerged on the verge, I'm thinkin'
I want to urge and encourage and you know we bringin'

Second level on the devil minded ego
And going strong it's the God anointed cinco
Even though up here and appear to please
Stay on my knees with the greatest of these, love

Made of pure intention, let me mention it's like
If it wasn't for Christ then I'd drop this mic
And walk away stray minded and annoyed
Pray every night that it fulfill my void
So what you want to do?

What's this escalates are more than you hoped for
Can you feel the same?

We know the words you say
They reinvent the lies but we're the same in time
This time He will wash away the tears you cry

We know the words you say
They reinvent the lies, but we're the same in time
This time He will wash away the tears you cry

One mic, one night, once chance to get it right
Open up the show, stepping into the spotlight
Well who am I now? Watch me control the crowd
People wondering how, do the freestyle

We'll set up the set, we'll show the show
We're mile to mile, yo it's time go
Fill up the tank and let's hit the road
Working uphill until we explode

So give me the mic and let me rock, I will rock it
The spirit inside like Mr. TNT
There ain't no stoppin' it
So let's take it to the world that's full of stars

And introduce them to the One who made them
Who they are 'cause I represent the heaven sent oh so lovely
Only when G O D be the one inside of me, rockin' it, not in the flesh
Come listen to the sound coming out of the, Northwest

What's this escalates are more than you hoped for
Can you feel the same?

We know the words you say
They reinvent the lies, but we're the same in time
This time He will wash away the tears you cry

We know the words you say
They reinvent the lies but we're the same in time
This time He will wash away the tears you cry

We know the words you say
They reinvent the lies but we're the same in time
This time He will wash away the tears you cry

Our hearts in places mending
You know this moves through your endings

Our hearts in places mending
You know this moves through your endings, you

We hold strong through suffering eyes, you'll see the fear within us die
We belong here side by side, I'll be the one to life You high
They cast me out, I can't go on without feeling in doubt
We need the peace that only You can give us

We know the words you say
They reinvent the lies but we're the same in time
This time He will wash away the tears you cry

We know the words you say
They reinvent the lies but we're the same in time
This time He will wash away the tears you cry

J-5 what you want? Collaborate for real
We lockin' down from the compound on Capitol hill fittin' the bill, tell me what you'd do if I said,
"I still believe"
Christ is God and rose from the dead, fillin' your head

Dance with the songs I found
With this sound, put it down West coast underground
So really, where would we be if not free?
I know we rise again through Romans 3:23

Falling up to race in places you all fall
And all I did would be the same like Paul Wright Back to You into peace and hope and You are Standing there arms wide open
