So this is real, the window sill, it cannot heal
All the secrets are here now
All I've known, my covers blown, the ages shown
You know that they all fake the hope
The neon lights, the fade of night, the fear of heights
The complex and effects start
Breaking tide to bleach the white, and early light
And water only from His side

All alone
There's whispers of defenses gone

This is the way, this is the motion
Let go now
This is the threat, this is the ocean
Let go now
And so it's made, the frozen shade has turned my gaze
The effect is in motion
Strength is gone, my breath is on the last is drawn
You know that it will soon be gone
Still I wait in today and complicate
And all time is just frozen
I see through, was never you, and what you said
The hope is where His hand has bled

Just let go
