I've felt this
My whole life
This darkness that's inside
It eats me up and swallows me whole
So take my soul
Please make me whole
I've waited my whole life to feel right
I've tried to change this and I can't take it
So hollow me out and bleed me dry
Please take me
God, please save me
Please take me
God, please save me

So take me home tonight
This doesn't feel alright
Cos we are the ones
The children of the night

We'll scream from these hills
His blood has been spilled
When we were lost
He paid the cost
We will not be damned
My heart cannot withstand
I'll live this life with all I've got
Take this to the end
We are one, my friend
One day soon
We'll all come home
Please take me
God, please save me
Please take me
God, please save me

So take me home tonight
This doesn't feel alright
Cos we are the ones
The children of the night
We are the children of the night
