"Never Let You Down"

These days have come and gone
How did we get this way
I look around and see
The end is coming soon, they say
Oh, look how far we've come
It's time to move this on
I'll never let you down
Just know that I'm right here
I see into your eyes
And we have been through all these years
I tried so hard to be
What you wanted me to be
But I could see how all of this came to an end
These walls are falling down
It's time to turn around
Then you will see
What all of this had meant to me
