(Guido & Mauricio deAngelis/David Cowles)

Sometimes I feel we're still together
Only a touch away
Memories of you I still remember
Words that you used to say
Used to say

Stand by my side, I need you near me
Feeling you close to me
Stand by my side, I see things clearly
You're all I ever need
Spending the time we had together
Loving you more each day
It was strong
Getting so much stronger
Now we're both apart

Stand by my side
There's so many things
I must tell you
Now I must try
To change the position
And make you stay
Stand by my side
What else must I do
To convince you
Now I must try
Now I must try

Faced with another situation
We wouldn't be the same
Waiting for some communication
Feelings are bound to change
Bound to change

Stand by my side, I need you near me
Feeling you close to me
Stand by my side, I see things clearly
You're all I ever need
Spending the time we had together

Loving you more each day
It was strong
Getting so much stronger
Now we're both apart

Stand by my side
There's so many things
I must tell you
Now I must try
To change the position
And make you stay
Stand by my side
What else must I do
To convince you
Now I must try
Some other way
To make you change your mind
