[Chorus]

It's like emotions get to flowing
When that liquor get to pouring, you dig?
I see you again once in a while, I get the A...I don't like
But if you we never ever spoke again
Baby that would be alright, baby that would be alright
Baby that would be alright, baby that would be alright

I had to tell that shawty bye bye
We ain't seeing eye to eye
Ironic how the magic disappeared like voila
Went from bein biggest cheerleader on the side
To wishing that your ass never occupied my time
Now that care for sure affecting you
Friends talking down on a nigga, you ain't speak ups
Well that shit's just unacceptable Got you on my instagram like in out and personal
But shit I broke your heart
So go and do whatever works for you
I ain't hear a word from you and got some new nigga
But I know you girl he ain't your type
And you could do better
I prolly got some questions that I really need to ask him
like
Do he know that he ran only cause he a reban I always been the type to make the best of out I was given
But even I couldn't make a dove out of a pigeon Even know the shit's cool, something I'ma get through
I get faded, start feeling out a hooft do, real nigga shit, fly high

[Chorus]

It's like emotions get to flowing
When that liquor get to pouring, you dig?
I see you again once in a while, I get the A...I don't like
But if you we never ever spoke again
Baby that would be alright, baby that would be alright

Baby that would be alright, baby that would be alright

Lookin back I was a tad immature With our backs to the wall, still nothing was insummable
They wanted 2, made 3, was like a shot from that 4
Trap jordan, you ain't hold yourself accountable Thought I ...that you endured the best Switched up when you ignored my every call, I was vexxed
Then prayer came in handy, called the lord every second
Now you tell me you was actually gone before you left Whoa, was I too much? You couldn't keep up Did I intimidate you? You couldn't speak up
Was it ...ass, nicky's d cups
Only hurt so much now cause I ain't cheat much
They say when you love someone, let it go
And I bet you wish you done stuck it through Cause me loving shawties' uncomfortable for you Know I fucked you like me, but no one fucked me like you

[Chorus]

It's like emotions get to flowing
When that liquor get to pouring, you dig?
I see you again once in a while, I get the ...I don't like
