I'm back in the race I'm feeling alive again you've taking a weight of my shoulders I'm letting the sun back in cause you had me ---- til I caught you with a smile now you try to fake it but I see in your.

Ref: Don't give me that I got a feeling that you want me back and that's a real thing a fake is a fake no matter what you say don't give me that.

I'm back in the game I'm starting to breathe again --
---- found someone friendly it's making me laugh again and you stay to --- and keep telling me goodbye but I want back away now I seen in your eyes.

Ref: Don't give me that I got a feeling that you want
me back and
that's a real thing a fake is a fake nomatter what you say don't give me that.

I've been lost without you and that's a naked true I was just about to be be giving up on you.

Ref: Don't give me that.....
