Just a little feel good lie
Check your alibi

Everybody tells a little story
Everybody tells a white lie
Sometimes you gotta be careful
You gotta check your reasons why
(I guess you do what you gotta do)
Better watch your back
(You gotta say what you say)
You gotta be careful boy

Everybody's got a little secret
Everybody's got a darker side
Did you think that I wouldn't see right through it
Your alligator tears are dry (You gotta say where you're gonna be)
Better watch your back
(Where you're coming from)
You gotta be careful boy

Better run away
I don't wanna play
Who needs it anyway

(Chorus)
You think you're irresistible
So hot it's unbelievable
I'm thinking you're just predictable
Yeah yeah yeah yeah
Better check you alibi
When you look me in the eye
Make them real good lies
Like them feel good lies
Think I'm messing with your plan
I don't really give a damn about them
Real good lies
Them feel good lies

Check your alibi

Come down, get a little real

Find something that can work for you
You ain't no superhero
Just a faker with an attitude
(Be what you're gonna be)
Better watch your back
(Come clean)
You gotta be careful boy

Better run away
I don't wanna play
Who needs it anyway

(Chorus)
Yeah yeah yeah yeah

(Real good) Real good
(Feel good lies) Them feel good lies
(No good) So good
(Alibi) Better check your alibi
(Real good) The muse in you
(Feel good lies) Make her cry
(No good) Oh, no no no
(Alibi) Oh oh oh oh

(Chorus)
Yeah yeah yeah yeah
