You had tried to buy my love
Now you want my heart
That ain't workin' on me
You had shown me all your sides
All your plan
That ain't workin' on me
Never thought you'd do what I please
Never thought you'd do what

You can try to control me
You can try to destroy me
But I know your games and in the end you will be all
alone
You can try to control me
You can try to destroy me
alone

I won't give you more of me
How hard can it be
I'm leaving you for me
Never thought you'd beg on your knee
Never thought you'd do what

You can try to control me
You can try to destroy me
alone
You can try to control me
You can try to destroy me
alone

When the time is right
I'll come back too
But 'til then
I hope that you see
I'm leaving you for me

You can try to control me
You can try to destroy me

alone
You can try to control me
You can try to destroy me
alone

You can try to control me
You can try to destroy me
alone
You can try to control me
You can try to destroy me
alone

You can try to control me
You can try to destroy me
alone
You can try to control me
You can try to destroy me
alone
