My love, my heart, will always be with you
Don't try to hurt me anymore
I think it's time for me to show
That my pride, is so strong and my life most carried on.
Don't try to cheat on me again
Baby you now I will be gone

My pride, my love, these things don't go together
It's impossible to change
My pride, my love, remember this I tell you now
It's so difficult to hide
I'm a girl with too much pride.

Her tonight my love, will be the last goodbye
Don't try to make things better now
Baby please leave before I cry

My pride, my love, these things don't go together
It's impossible to change
My pride, my love, remember this I tell you now
It's so difficult to hide
I'm a girl with too much pride

It's so sad, so sad it ends this way
It's too bad, there's no sense for us this way

Ohoohohoooo

My pride, my love, these things don't go together
It's impossible to change
My pride, my love, remember this I tell you now
It's so difficult to hide.....
I'm a girl with too much pride
