I dont know where, you comming from
You think you so fine
Dont have a clue, whats going on
You way out of line

I can see what youve got
But you aint gonna get love

Take your time, figure out,
Maybe then you gonna get some

You wanna be RocknRoll, but you not,
You wanna give it a go, but you stop,
Let me tell you, I dont wanna love you,
So you better stop breaking my heart.
You think you playing it cool,
But Im hot,
You say I act like a fool,
But Im not,
Listen honey I dont wanna love you,
So you better stop breaking my heart.

Ah

I dont know how, it came to me,
All of the times, I think I know
What you ever did,
And who is the clown

It takes more then you got
If you wanna get my love

Take your time, figure out,
Maybe then you gonna get some

You wanna be RocknRoll, but you not,
You wanna give it a go, but you stop,
Let me tell you, I dont wanna love you,
So you better stop breaking my heart.
You think you playing it cool,
But Im hot,

You say I act like a fool,
But Im not,
Listen honey I dont wanna love you,
So you better stom breaking my heart.

You never listen,
You think that you are the one for me, oh no
Why is it so hard for you?
I think its plain to see

You wanna be RocknRoll, but you not,
You wanna give it a go, but you stop,
Let me tell you, I dont wanna love you,
So you better stop breaking my heart.
You think you playing it cool,
But Im hot,
You say I act like a fool,
But Im not,
Listen honey I dont wanna love you,
So you better stop breaking my heart.

Listen honey I dont wanna love you,
So you better stop breaking my heart.
