Nothing like the sun,
Keeps you from tumbling in the dark
Thought out once or twice,
You figure out where you gotta start
All the scars have filled my heart with pain,
Here you are just to wash it all away
And you set me free.

Everyday is like a walk in the park now and I'm feeling like I'm so brand new Love is clear as the color of water and I'm so glad I found you

Ringing in my ear,
Sounds like someones banging on the door
I hear it loud & clear,
Something I just can't ignore
You stepped into my life when I was blind,
Pulled me out of the wreckage just in time
Now I can see

Everyday is like a walk in the park now and I'm feeling
like I'm so brand new Love is clear as the color of water and I'm so glad I
found you

So transparent, You are to me,
Were passers by and now I believe

Everyday is like a walk in the park now and I'm feeling
like I'm so brand new Love is clear as the color of water and I'm so glad I found you (x2)

I'm so glad I found you,
Color of water
I'm so glad I found you,
Color of water, Water, Water
