Take away my fears
Just so I can face another day
Wash away my tears
And tell me everything's gonna be ok

Would you lie to me?
Would you cover up me eyes?
Would you tell me so I'm not so surprised?
I wish you'd shelter me
Wish you'd bring me in again
But I know inside that I've reached the end

And I know
That you can not forgive me now
And I know
The hardest part is getting by
And I know
That there's no way to change this now
This time I already know

Understand how I feel

Losing you has taken me away
My mistake that I deal with
I deal with time and over time again

Would you lie to me?
Would you cover up me eyes?
Would you tell me so I'm not so surprised?
I wish you'd shelter me
Wish you'd bring me in again
But I know inside that I've reached the end

And I know
That you can not forgive me now
And I know
The hardest part is getting by
And I know
That there's no way to change this now
This time I'm letting go
