Somehow I knew
These familiar places
That I have been before
I thought I'd run
To escape feelings
That I had felt before

No one can take me anywhere but you
Nobody else is you

And how will I live like this?
With everything I did
No one has ever made me feel like you
And how did we get this way?
Everything seemed okay
No one could ever take the place of you

I fought off fears
That I had hiding
From many loves before
But all I knew
You had that something
I never felt before

No one can take me anywhere but you
Nobody else is you

And how will I live like this?
With everything I did
No one has ever made me feel like you
And how did we get this way?
Everything seemed okay
No one could ever take the place of you

No it wasn't hard to realize
That you are the place
Never wanted anything to change
Guessed a lot of reasons why
I see my mistake
I want you to stay

So now I know

These familiar places
That I had been before
No I won't run
To escape feelings
That I had felt before

And how will I live like this?
With everything I did
No one has ever made me feel like you
And how did we get this way?
Everything seemed okay
No one could ever take the place of you
