I lit a fire for you
And now the whole wood is on fire
Now I know what you're gonna say
And it feels like the first time.
C'mon, Let's show them that it's you and me
Though everyone already knows
Out, you're running away with me
Yeah, Can't you hear them singing?

As everything was meant to be
As the earth revolves around the sun.
Who can take my place
There is none
They're talking about something beautiful
I'm there I can tell you.
It's great, greater than I ever expected
My head is spinning

I lit a fire for you
And now the whole wood is on fire
Now I know what you're gonna say
And it feels like the first time.
C'mon, Let's show them that it's you and me
Though everyone already knows
Out, you're running away with me
Yeah, Can't you hear them singing?
