Buffet tea for two, a farewell kiss for you
I climb aboard and shut that door, we're through
I'm on the train and then I look back once again
Before I know what's happening, we're moving

To a new start, a new city
Leaving you, my pretty
It's not so hard as not leaving there at all, no no
Been knowing you for so long
The habits just seemed wrong
I got things to do and it seems like that's the cure

Think of her a while, and I offer no denial
I'm excited like it's out of style, and it's, oh it's thrilling
Bedsit by the tube, evening dinner too
Steady job, good prospects due, if I'm willing, if I'm willing

To a new start, a new city
Leaving you, my pretty
It's not so hard as not leaving there at all, oh
Been knowing you for so long
The habits just seemed wrong
I got things to do and it seems that's the cure

We just passed some boats, it can't be far to go
Man up train is putting on his coat, we're slowing
Yes, Pancras here I come, I raced them all and won
On the platform and I run, and I'm, oh I'm running

To a new start, a new city
Leaving you, my pretty
It's not so hard as not leaving there at all, no no
Been knowing you for so long
The habits just seemed wrong
I got things to do, seems like that's the cure
