I hope you climb the highest mountain,
I hope you always touch the sky,
When I look out I want to see you able
Where eagles fly.

There'll be times you feel you're falling
Lessons learned out of the blue
I hope that you always remember
Behind each tear there's laughter too

And with every breath you ever take
And every step you have to make
My only wish for you
Is only a beautiful,
Beautiful dreams come true

There's so many ways to tell you
I know sometimes you wonder why
It's hard to see but you will find out
Where you go where eagles fly
