A lady of ice in a desert zone

Where a web of lies has turned to stone.
A lady of ice with a painted smile

I should keep her warm iust for a while.

All I want is ecstasy reaching for reality

Love comes and sweeps your past away.
We'll climb invincible mountains
I want you never to be.

A lady of ice in a desert zone

Where a web of lies has turned to stone. . . .

All I want is holding you
Huggin' and protecting you

Turn up the beating of your heart.
It's like a transmutation
I want you never to be.

A lady of ice in a desert zone

Where a web of lies has turned to stone. . . .

We'll climb the highest mountains
I want you never to be.
A lady of ice in a desert zone

Where a web of lies has turned to stone. . . .

A lady of ice in a desert zone

Where o web of lies has turned to stone. . . .
