"Sail Away"

I've got the strangest feeling
I'll be sailing away
I'm leaving
Knew when I saw your eyes tonight

Standing alone and wondering
Are you looking at me or someone ?
Secrets of you I have to know
I think I'm growing fonder
I'm hypnotised with wonder
Carried away in just one night

Sail away inside my stories
Feel the glow within my life
Hear my words and see me crying over you

Sail away inside my stories
Hold me close by candlelight
Take my hand your heart is trying everyday
Sail away

You must be sent from heaven
You are my wild obsession
You left me waiting far away
I wanna see you smiling
But too many miles divide us
I dream of you and sail away

Sail away
Sail away
