"Time Will Only Tell"

I feel my time is coming and I'm not so sure
If I've already been here too late
The time has passed by
And I'm not so sure what I should fear

Disappointment takes it toll
When you're getting older
And everyone's still younger

I feel my time is coming and not so sure
If I've already been here too late
The time has passed by
And I'm not so sure what I should fear

Procrastination takes its toll
Grabs you by the throat
And never lets you go

I feel my time is coming and I'm not so sure
If I've already been here too late
The time has passed by
And I'm not so sure but time will only tell
