(Verse)

Today's no cares, no tears,
I pray that this means I'm over you,
My, my, my, please God say it's true.
I don't wanna live in fear,
Spending my life without you,
I told you bye, bye. Bye, I swear I really mean it.

(Pre-Chorus)

While the memories flow through my head
Maybe I should take back what I said.

(Chorus)

Cause it ain't all bad when you're around,
But it ain't all bad all by myself,
Treated me so bad I put you down
I guess it's just my life turning back to back.
Let it go, even though I want you
Let it go, I don't really need you.
Let me know, falling out of love, ain't all bad.

(Verse)

I think that I made a bad call
When I decided to give me my all,
Yeah, over and over and over and again.
Now I deal the tears screaming down my face,
But this crying eyes, they will never change,
Bet I want you go bye-bye,
I swear I really mean it, cause

(Pre-Chorus)

While the memories flow through my head
Maybe I should take back what I said.

(Chorus)

Cause it ain't all bad when you're around,
But it ain't all bad all by myself,
Treated me so bad I put you down
I guess it's just my life turning back to back.
Let it go, even though I want you
Let it go, I don't really need you.
Let me know, falling out of love, ain't all bad.

(Bridge)

Used to think I never, never ever ever let you go
Now I know better, feeling like it's best I let you go.
One time for the time, that you told 'em you won't let

À'em go

Still time you broke my heart and I can't run, I'm walking out the door.

(Pre-Chorus)

While the memories flow through my head

Maybe I should take back what I said.

(Chorus)

Cause it ain't all bad when you're around,

But it ain't all bad all by myself,

Treated me so bad I put you down

I guess it's just my life turning back to back.

Let it go, even though I want you

Let it go, I don't really need you.

Let me know, falling out of love, ain't all bad.
