I don't need anybody else
But you
Come on

[Foreign content]

Boy, stop playin' tricks on me
'Cause when I think I found the right one
I end up lonely
So don't judge me
Before you get to know me
I don't wanna share your love
Make me yours one and only, oh

Come on, I don't want nobody else
I want you to myself
You can call me selfish if you want to
I don't need nobody else
Don't wanna share your love
I wanna be the only one you run to

My heart, can't take another heart break
'Cause every time I fall deep in love
Somebody go and hurt me
So this time
There will be no mistakes
If you allow me to prove myself
Boy I can make you happy

Come on, I don't want nobody else
I want you to myself
You can call me selfish if you want to
I don't need nobody else
Don't wanna share your love
I wanna be the only one you run to

I'm stingy with my man
I'm stingy with the goodies
If you think my styles fly
Then check the way I boogie
This one tough cookie
With shell toes and hoodies

Will approach any chic that walks up to my man

Never understand my man, be my man
I shut the game down
This dude is mine now
Bring it to the ring
K.O.in one round
Miss Demenor and Fantasia
With the break down

I want to be the only one
The only one that you run to
I sure don't need nobody else
You're the one, you're the one, you're the one, you're the one
I wanna be

I want to be the only one
the one

Come on, I don't want nobody else
You can call me selfish if you want to
