[Verse 1:]

If I didn't love you so much
If I didn't care enough,
I would've been with other boy years ago.

But if I didn't get too hurt,
If you didn't chose me first,
I would've rather be alone, by myself, at home.

I didn't want you to take my hand,
But I kinda like the thought of that in a man,
Now I'm so done with that.

[Chorus:]

If I was a bird I'd fly out of here,
Forget everything and travel the world.
If I was a bird I'd spread my wings and I can survive get away from you.
If I was a bird, if I was a bird,
If I wasn't in love.

[Verse 2:]

If my heart was in pieces that was build up on lies
Boy, I disguise to cry, that's why I hide.
When all that's left in me, why would I ever speak
Where is my home to hide this whole vibe.
I didn't want you to hold my hand,
But I kind of like the thought of having a man.

[Chorus:]

If I was a bird I'd fly out of here,
Forget everything and travel the world.
If I was a bird I'd spread my wings and I can survive get away from you.
If I was a bird, if I was a bird,
If I wasn't in love.
