Love is psychedelic,
Love is something that always take my body and soul
to
A paradise,

Love gives you delirious experience sometimes;
This is a strange and unusual story
That I've actually experienced.
Here I was, being amused by the groove
Thinking daily of you,
On the dance floor
Suddenly, a magical sensation
Was created in me.
Every time I would receive the groovy fat Santa in my
Body
I felt that my sweet feelings for you
Grew bigger and bigger, within me.

Then this guy finally got completely out of me
Turns out that he had flipped all shiny chunk of light
And it was floating in front of me.
Then the next morning,
This guy, well I mean this chunk of my love for you
Started flying up to the ceiling slowly,
And smashed into the metal ball hanging there
Then it fell apart with this intense flash
It became thousands of millions of dots of lights,
And expanded to all over the place
And started spinning around with the music.
I can't believe that my sweet love for you
Is taking over the whole dance floor
But the next thing I knew
I got back to myself.
Was it illusion or was it real?
Oh, by the way, I might have drank too much.

Here I was, being amused by the groove,
Thinking daily about you on the dance floor
Again, the magical, strange sensation came into me.
Suddenly you knew, the sweet chunk of my love for you
Came out of me.

What was the reason why?
What was the reason why?
Then it just kept floating right out in front of me,
Again.
And the next moment, it split up extremely fast.
Broke through the ceiling,
And flew up higher and higher.
It went over the Stratosphere,
Began spreading out to the Universe.
I was looking at this landscape,
Wow, I'd only seen it on TV, and once in an Encyclopedia.
And this guy was growing bigger and bigger
And then flying into the sphere of darkness.
It grazed Mars, made a circle around Jupiter,
Slid over a hoop of Saturn,
By the time it had reached Uranus and Pluto
It had grown into a remarkably big.
Then crashed into Neptune
With a dramatic flash
Innumerable amounts of stars were born,
In a jet of black dots
Then the whole Universe started spinning around me,
Just like a planetarium.

God, how beautiful.
Oh, how divine.
I can't believe that my sweetest love for you
Has taken over the whole Universe now.
I am sure the shine of the stars
Would take you to the height
Of happiness
I was deeply, deeply touched.
I almost started crying.
Oh, what a wonderful moment.

But then, again I came back to myself.
Here I was dancing at the center of the dance floor
The mirror walls were spinning around as always.
And the dots of lights were making beautiful patterns
In the air.
What was what I saw, just a while ago?
Was I seeing an illusion,
Was I being real?
I just don't know.
Well, I must have drunk too much, anyway.
You see, that nice, sweet groove that the DJ was Playing
Must have gotten more incredible,
Because of my drunkenness.
But what I can say, for sure,

Is that sometimes love can make you experience
Something very mysterious.
And no matter what,
I am truly in love with you.

Love is psychedelic,
Love always take my body and soul to a paradise,
Love is psychedelic,
Love is psychedelic,
Love is psychedelic.
