And he always wrote and he always called
And he never lied 'cause he never said anything at all

In a world of dirt, I am rainin', I'm erodin'
But which one of us? In a chorus of maybe's
I realize, I realize, I realize, I realize

Nestle, nestle, nestle, I won't ever let you go

When I started this, I was thinking of my father
Now a holy ghost, now see one become the other
One become me, one become me
I realize, I realize, I realize

Nestle, nestle, nestle, nestle
Nestle, I won't ever let you go
Let you go, let you go, let you go
