You're way out of line,
But where was the line drawn last time,
We laughed last night, but today it's all so wrong
And we're all the same
So why would you cause me so much pain
Well end this fight and pass over the blame
[Chorus]
When the ashes clear away, when the clouds move from the sun,
Don't be afraid don't be afraid, and don't turn away
When they dig up what you burried here,
When they find your dirty jewels
Don't turn away, don't turn away, and don't be afraid

Your cutting me down

Your cutting me down, your beating me senseless to the ground
Regaining consciousness without a sound
I'm taking you out
Removing the kill the lies the doubt I'm taking your clothes, your shoes, your robe, your crown

[Chorus]

Did it reach down from the sky
Did it push up from the ground
Did it turn your life around
Did it reach down from the sky
Did it crawl up from the ground
Did it turn your life around

[Chorus]
