Deal with the mental pictures, turn them into something beneficial
Only memories and you werent there so stop wasting your time Pray on the innocent, she's so young and unexperienced
She makes you feel like the whole wide world
Revolves around your head

Attracted to the ignorance
Shes so obsessed
But you wont kiss her virgin lips
You need it less
But you'll take away her innocence

Subtract the only diffrence, think back on every hour lived
A few short years ago you never would have pictured this
So are you asking any questions, are you learning any lessons
Just pass down the torch that burned you when you learned you could forgive

Attracted to the ignorance
Shes so obsessed
But you wont kiss her virgin lips
You need it less
But you'll take away her innocence

Enjoy yourself at her expense, lie to her, pretend
When it's convenient make it meaningful,
Don't open up the door, don't give her any more
When it's convenient make it meaningful So are you taking any chances, are you taking her for granted
Moving down the line to move towards the end with no regrets

Attracted to the ignorance
Shes so obsessed

But you wont kiss her virgin lips
You need it less
But you'll take away her innocence,innocence [x2]

Nothing more and nothing less
