Save me Iâ€™m hearing voices again
Something is changing
Hurt me Iâ€™ve got the worst of intentions
I deserve everything you give me

I canâ€™t see me lasting long here
Say my goodbyes and Iâ€™m on my way
A fallout nightmare I donâ€™t wanna wake from â€™Cause thereâ€™s no difference between here and there

Protect me from myself
Iâ€™m falling slowly and waiting for misery
Kill me and this agony
Living in the fallout

Break me down to what you need

Then leave me behind it all
Show me something that I can do
To keep me from going down again

I canâ€™t see me lasting long here
Say my goodbyes and Iâ€™m on my way
A fallout nightmare I donâ€™t wanna wake from
â€™Cause thereâ€™s no difference between here and
there

Drag me through the shit again
And remind me of what I am Hate me and what Iâ€™ve become
And pray you donâ€™t end up like me
