She called to say she's overdrawn
She needs a cab to get back home
She'll pay me back but don't know when
I swear she only wants it all
We keep a little picture postcard wall
Of all the places we won't go

CHORUS

I'm not the one who who put you here
I'm not the one who could take you or leave you
Anywhere

Between the boys who pay her bills
There's a pocket she keeps filled
With all the candy for her pain
Do you see her now
She's a sugar coated girl
She nearly melts out in the rain

CHORUS

Hold me down now (hold me down around you now)
Hold me down now (hold me deep within you now)
Hold me down now
All I wanted was to touch you, to taste you
To hear you say the things you'll never say

I'm not the one who keeps you here
I'm not the one who could take you or leave you
Anywhere

Hold me down now (hold me down around you now)
Hold me down now (hold me deep within you now)
Hold me down now
All I wanted was to touch you, to taste you
To hear you say the things you'll never say
