Hey...oh...

(i know you might not be ready yet)

Lalalala babe (i just wanted you to know that i got time)

You see me through.through thick and thin

'cause everyday wiht you is like i'm born again

But we're only friends

And you know that i see you as so much more (see you as so much more) babe

You took me to another world

Never wanna come back again need you to be my girl

To hold me close

That's the reason why it hurts so bad to see you go

Chorus

I got time

If my time's spent waiting ony you

Then i got time

And i'm never goin anywhere

As long as you love me then i got time

And imma be waiting on you

Then i got time

And i'm never goin anywhere

I try my best to understand what could be the reason you wouldn't want me to be your man

'cause i treat you right

I'd hold your hand

I'd kiss every single tear drop as they fall down

But you're so confused

You wonder if i am the one, and yeah i wonder too

Nothing to do ...but sit here alone until i find out

chorus

Just say that you love me

That you can't live without me

That you wanna go n get married

That's all i wanna hear

I don't care about your house

The way i see it it's too high class
So far away and you can't go back
'cause everything changed the day i came here

OOoOoh

And i'm never goin anywhere (x6)
I got time n i'm never goin anywhere
Never goin anywhere (x6)
I got time n i'm never goin anywhere

Lala..ohohoh..ayayaya
