Here I am again struggling to forget what's on the other side. I'm just squeezing by my hearts on the other side of what I think is wrong.

I can't hardly wait to tell you what I feel but I can't get there yet! Why can't you just stay this can't last please don't leave me.

Why can't you just stay? This can't last! Tear drops on my heart drowned me in pain! It shouldn't work like this I can't do this anymore

I can't hardly wait to tell you what I feel but I can't get there yet! Why can't you just stay this can't last please don't leave me.

I could have been the one for you! But I do so much wrong that you can't ever forget! X2

For what I went through u could have cared less remember we said we would live forever remember when we could live forever we said we were worth everything.

You're not the best you don't care if I'm dead or alive you mean nothing to me you me
