

Farewell To Freeway "In These Wounds"

Visit "In These Wounds" on MotoLyrics.com

Over my dead body you'll lie thoughts cold all oversight
(It's all inside my head)
It's all inside my head and you wish you only knew of it (Until this moment here with you)
Under your, your spell these feelings never seemed the same
(Until this moment shared with you)

Chorus:

In these wounds! A knife along your throat
It's life that's worth it all.
The blood that runs so cold

Time time and time again, These moments shall remain
(Time time and time again)
Time time and time again, these moments shared with you shall remain
(Until this moment shared with you)

Chorus:

In these wounds! A knife along your throat
It's life that's worth it all.
The blood that runs so cold
(X2)

As you my informer, I try
It's not my intention to seek fear
When all your worries all calm down and still fall through
It's all in these moments here with you

Chorus:

In these wounds! A knife along your throat
It's life that's worth it all.
The blood that runs so cold
