With just an ounce of envy
I hold my head heavy but I
I can't believe what you've become
Such a fitting scene
Are you trailing behind
But you hold your own
And now you face it
And I know all too well
I can spare a moment for this
This face has caught my eye
It's just another cry

You won't let it show
We're down to the wire
I'm alive I'm inside
I just hope you know
You won't be alone
I'll be right here beside you
Hold on just a moment for this
You might miss it if you close your eyes
Don't hide it in side it won't erase it
This time
