"A Thin Line"

Visit "A Thin Line" on MotoLyrics.com

When you dream about a new style
You think about a new life
You have to walk a thin line
I'm a lightning rod for failure
Watching karma playing favorites
This happens to us all the time
This happens all the time

That doesn't feel right
That seems dangerous
Dangerous
I happen to know you're headed for nothing at all
Nothing at all
We've been just a fall

Make this night worthy of remembrance
May the best
I read that scene with my eyes closed

That doesn't feel right
That seems dangerous
Dangerous
I happen to know you're headed for nothing at all
Nothing at all
We've been just a fall

Make this night worthy of remembrance
May the best of
I read that scene with my eyes closed
This seems so dangerous

I happen to know you're headed for nothing at all
Nothing at all
We've been just a fall
Dangerous

I happen to know you're headed for nothing at all
Nothing at all
We've been just a fall
