We grip onto our lives so tight
But that's built into us all
It seemed to be a parasite that was tearing through it's host
I'd love to take your pain away
But I cannot do it all
I'd love to see you walk away...

You don't have to die
Learn to fly away
I'll see you in the end
I'm not scared at all
'Cause you found your antidote

Your antidote

We grip onto our lives so tight
But that's built into us all
It seemed to be a parasite that was tearing through it's
host
I'd love to take your pain away
But I cannot do it all
I'd love to see you walk away...

You don't have to die
Learn to fly away
I'll see you in the end
I'm not scared at all
'Cause you found your antidote

La la la...

Now that I see you I've found
A way to beat this and I'm
Beating it into the ground
I've found the courage and I
Now that I see you have found

You don't have to die
Learn to fly away
I'll see you in the end
I'm not scared at all

'Cause you found your antidote

Now that I see you I've found
A way to beat this and I'm
Beating it into the ground
I've found the courage and I
Now that I see you have found
A way to beat this...
