Come and take a ride with
Up to the stars above
Far away from all the hatred
Here disguised as love

Come fly away with me
Where everyone's a star
No one is ashamed to be
The creature that they are

Ground control, I'm going home
It's my new destiny
So take a picture now
'Cause you have seen the last of me

And there's no time for crying
No time for goodbye
It's time now for this rocket-ship
To fly

Gravity will never hold me

'Cause home is where the stars are
All alone with you

I'm gonna go with you
And live up in the skies
I've had enough of planet earth
And all its life

We'll watch it on the screen
Drifting by that all
And all its plain [Incomprehensible] it seems Like some bad TV show

Ground control, we're going home
Along the milky-way, so write this down
'Cause these are the last words
You'll here me say

We're flying to the future
We leave behind the past

Now wave hello
We're coming home at last

Stardust was made just for us

And home is where we both belong
There where we come from
'Cause home is where the stars are
All alone with you

Home
'Cause home is where the stars are
All alone with you
