And then time stood still
We touched, in the heart of the fire
We crossed over lines
The magic we shared in our perfect desire,
Then love came undone ... in the spell...
Of something that's broken ... we danced ...
In the night of satin and lace, we were suddenly woken.
No we've got another moment to share,
And I can't believe, this has happened to me!
Take a little piece of my soul tonight
Take a little piece of my one and only
Take a little piece of my soul tonight
Take a little piece of my one and only heart
And then one became two
Look me I'm so lost in the world.
Without you by my side,
'Till the end of my life tell me, what can I do?

Take a little piece of my soul tonight
Take a little piece of my one and only heart
Take a little piece of my soul tonight
Take a little piece of my one and only heart
Take a little piece of my one and only
Take a little piece of my one and only heart
A little piece of my soul (my soul)
Take a piece of my heart (a little piece of my soul)
A little piece of my soul
Now we have another moment to share,
I still can't explain how it always feels so new
Take a little piece of my soul tonight
Take a little piece of my one and only
Take a little piece of my soul tonight
Take a little piece of my one and only heart
