Well could that look I see on you mean that you might be lonely too Well you don't have to feel so bad you're not the only one that's sad Just look at all the hearts in town you're looking for the lost and found So someone special just like you might come along and give a lonely heart a home Just give a lonely heart a home one it can call its very own
And you can have true love from this moment on just
[steel]
Well just look close and you might find the saddest heart in town is mine And should we give true love a try our hearts just might see eye to eye
So if you're looking for a way to do your good deed for today

The one thing you could do and not go wrong is give a lonely heart a home Just give a lonely heart a home...
And you can have true love from this moment on just
