(Ben Peters)

It's time to cross that bridge that we talked about
It's time to take that step across the line
Yes it's time to cross that bridge that we talked about
'Cause loving you is all that's on my mind.

We both knew at the start what it would lead to
Said we'd cross that bridge if ever comes the time
But every day I find that more and more I need you
And when I'm holding her it's you that's on my mind.

It's time to cross that bridge that we talked about
It's time to take that step across the line
Yes, it's time to cross that bridge that we talked about
'Cause loving you is all that's on my mind.

--- Instrumental ---

Yes, it's time to cross that bridge that we talked about
'Cause loving you is all that's on my mind
