(Mel Tillis)

Well, how can you have
The unmitigated gall
To come back now
Expecting me to fall.
Right down on my knees
And kiss your feet, yeah feet
Feet that one day
Went a walking out on me.
With a fast talking slob
You hardly knew his name
Your mind is
De-arranged.
And where did you get
The backbone and grit
To come back now
Expecting me to fit.
Right back into plans
That we once made
Plans that now are gone forever
To return never, ever.
I don't want you anymore
So get away from my door.
And let me live, live, live
And let me live, live, live.
Don't come messin'
Up my life again
How can you have
The courage and the nerve.
To come back now
Expecting me to love you
After the way
That you've done me.
Guess you think
That I'm a fool
But you're the one
That's blew their cool.
I don't need you anymore
So get away from my door.
And let me live, live, live
And let me live, live, live...
