She's really cool, mercurial
I feel weak when she speaks, invisible
She's so beautiful
I'm such a fool for you.
She's dynamite, kryptonite, while she sleeps
The world it keeps 'til morning light
She's so beautiful, I'd save the world for you.
If you'll be my Lois Lane, I'll be your superman
If you'd only call my name, I'd be your superman.
If you'll be my Lois Lane, I'll be your superman.
She doesn't see the other me, with x-ray eyes
I fantasize of what could be
She's so beautiful, I'd stop the world for you.

If you'll be my Lois Lane, I'll be your superman
If you'd only call my name, I'd be your superman.
If you'll be my Lois Lane, I'll be your superman.
If you'd only call my name, I'd be your superman.
Fly away into the blue, there's nothing that we couldn't do
We could be the fantastic two.
If you'll be my Lois Lane, I'll be your superman
If you'd only call my name, I'd be your superman.
If you'd be my Lois Lane, I'd be your superman.
If you'd only call my name, I'd be your superman.
