I walked home, you drove off.
You probably slept more than I did.
The monkey wrench inside my chest
Told me not to run.

From a stranger to a stranger:
"why don't we talk a while?
I've got nothing to lose
But the chance to make you smile"

Just be calm, just be cool,
And I won't make any sudden moves.
And while you wait
I'll try to say a joke or two you haven't heard.

From a stranger to a stranger:
"We both could do much worse.
So I hope that one of these nights
You'll use that number in your purse
'Cuz loneliness is who I know.
Perhaps he's someone you know,
A mutual friend of ours"

I'm a nerd, you're a queen.
So how about a date?
I didn't know you saw the show.
I thought I saw you leave.

From a stranger to a stranger:
"I could use a ride back home"

I could point out the stars
And we won't have to sleep alone, alone.
This loneliness is who I know.
Perhaps he's someone you know.

There's a million words
That I've been saving for a rainy day,
And a million tricks that I could use,
And I'd use them all at once
If that's what I have to do.

I'll find a way to make you stay,
At least until I find another reason, anyway.

I haven't felt this way
Since my first day of school.
It's a wish for me to make history with you, with you.

There's a million words
I've been saving for a rainy day,
And a million tricks that I could use,
And I'd juse them all at once
If that's what I have to do.

I'd find a way to make you stay,
Least till I find another reason, anyway.
Until I find another reason. (2x)

I'd find a way to make you stay
Until I find another reason.(3x)
