

Farwell "Everyday, Everynight"

A year ago we went our separate ways based on promises we made That we'd never:that we'd never say goodbye And this distance is tearing us apart. You better finish what you start A million miles between us and do you even think about me

Everyday I still think about the way you held my hand Everynight in our dreams we build our castles in the sand Lie awake, watch the clock, hope these thoughts of you won't end

In my mind I can still pretend that you are here with me
And I am there with you cause now there's nothing else I'd rather do

And I know that I'm the one to blame and we will never be the same
She said forget about me. You know I only wish I could because

I close my eyes but all I see is you
And I wonder sometimes if you see me too
