What exactly did you want that you didn't already have I gave you my heart but now I'd like it back And I'm sure it fits real nice with the rest of your collection
You were right you play unfair forgot to mention you play for keeps

And I hope the day will come when you get what you deserve
And I wish you knew what I meant when I say I'd like to watch you burn
And I'm sure you'd never notice bet you'd never have a clue
Every single word it all refers to you So ignore the ringing in your ears
Like you do with the ringing of your phone

If you're waiting for me don't hold your breath
No, hold it till the day I never call
