I don't know how I ever ended up here
I just came across a Y in the road and so I took it Started talking to a man and he told me
It's a nice little town to settle down in, if you're looking Well, thank you but I won't be staying long
It was just another place I don't belong

I left a little girl in Austin
And we kept on getting closer till I got cold feet
Every now and again I think about her
She was college educated with a PHD
Well, she was always right and I was wrong
It was just another place I don't belong

I'm like a wheel, I can't stop rollin'
On and on, I've gotta keep on going
Thank you but I won't be staying long
It was just another place I don't belong

I don't know how I ever ended up here
I didn't even have a reason, I got no sense of direction
Somehow I winded up in Nashville
Wrote some songs about my life the music world rejected
Don't fit our demographic, it's about what I expected
Word is, they got a way of ramblin' on
It's just another place I don't belong

I'm like a wheel, I can't stop rollin'
On and on, I've gotta keep on going
Thank you but I won't be staying long
It was just another place I don't belong

Thank you but I won't be staying long
It was just another place I don't belong
