Took a ride up to Reno Diamond star halo Lookin' around Pushin' blues at the station I feed the frustration that's kickin' around

But you don't even know what day it is You don't even know my name yet Baby take a look at yourself Heaven sees what nobody else can see You'll be free, Someday

Yeah it's alright It's just a matter of time 'Till I find my feet You've got your education Know how to work you're persuasion You ain't foolin' me

'Cause you don't even know what day it is You don't even know my name yet Baby take a look at yourself Heaven sees what nobody else can see You'll be free, Someday

You don't even know what day it is You don't even know my name yet Baby take a look at yourself Heaven sees what nobody else can see You'll be free
