They made up their minds
And they started packing
They left before the sun came up that day
An exit to eternal summer slacking
But where where they going without ever knowing the way

They drank up the wine and they got to talking They now had more important things to say
And when the car broke down they started walking
But where were they going without ever knowing the way

Anyone can see the road that they walked on is pegged
in gold
And its always summer, it never gets cold
And never get hungry, and never get old
And they..

You can see their shawdows wandering off somewhere
Wont make it home, but they really dont care
Walking the highway, happy their there today, today

Children woke up and they couldnt find them
they left before the sun came up that day they just drove off and left it all behind them where were they going without ever knowing the way

Anyone can see the road that they walked on is pegged
in gold
And its always summer, it never gets cold
And never get hungry, and never get old
And they..

You can see their shawdows wandering off somewhere
Wont make it home, but they really dont care
Walking the highway, happy their there today, today x2

Leavin' it all behind.....
