Can you make it easier for me to understand
How you're holding my heart in your trembling hand

Eyes, they rise to meet me halfway up among the stars
To meet me halfway up among the stars
You may be from Venus, but I'm definately not from Mars

You're an Ocean, You're an Ocean
Settle down, Settle down
What's the commotion?
I'm an island, but you're an ocean
It's a stormy sea of love and emotion
Ya got me in suspended motionless inside

Make the warm wind circle 'round my head just like you do
If I could do it, I'd be doing it to you

I believe I'd buy whatever you would sell to me
Nothin' in my life ever came with a guarantee

You're an Ocean, You're an Ocean
Settle down, Settle down
What's the commotion?
I'm an island, but you're an ocean
It's a stormy sea of love and emotion
Ya got me in suspended motionless inside

I believe I'd buy whatever you would sell to me
Nothin' in my life ever came with a guarantee

You're an Ocean, You're an Ocean
Settle down, Settle down
What's the commotion?
I'm an island, but you're an ocean
It's a stormy sea of love and emotion
Ya got me suspended motionless-
Ya got me suspended motionless-
Ya got me suspended motionless inside
